

I am concerned that BPL will cause interference to my Amateur Radio station. I hold an Extra Class license WT9M. It would be difficult in my rural location to find which powerlines are causing any interference and to track down the company responsible for eliminating it. This could take a long time, and not be done in a timely manner for our mobile and field public service work.